

Swans' Timetable

Autumn Term 2

Week: 10ii Date: 10.11.2025-14.10.2025

Maths: Unit 8 Division by partitioning leading to short division (2 and 3-digits by 1-digit)

| 8.45 - 9.00MorningWork/SNIP      | 9.00 - 10.00                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 10.00 - 11.00                                                    |                  | 11.15 - 12.15                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                  | 1.15 - 2.15                                                                                                                                      | 2.15-3.15                                                                                                                      | 2.50-3.15            |
|------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|
| MONDAY                            | Science9.30-10.30VR Space Experience                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | ShedSentences:Stage 9Octipadi                        |                  | ENGLISH: WRITING Pathways:Session 4.Similes and exploring pathetic fallacy to embed atmosphere within writing.Writing scene of Jub and the old woman, integrating dialogue to advance the action. |                  | MUSICWhy we sing: Lesson 1Learn about Gospel songs and spirituals                                                             | SPELLINGS:Test: Step 8 Words ending in -ance and -ancyTeach: Step 9: Words ending in '-ent' and '-ence' | Singing Assembly     |
| TUESDAY                           | MATHSLesson 11: Divide using short division with regrouping and remainders.                                                                                                                                                                                      | ENGLISH: -----Remembrance poem: reader's theatre. |                  | ----- SPELLINGS:Cloze Procedure                                                                                                                                                                       |                  | PSHERelationships: giving consent.                                                                                                    | Year 5 - PE Mrs DaviesSL Year 6                                                                                        |                      |
| WEDNESDAY                         | GEOGRAPHYLesson 4: What is there to do in our local area?                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                  | PLAYTIME  | MATHSLesson 12: use short division when the hundreds digit is smaller than the divisor.                                                                                                                   | LUNCHTIME | English: WRITING Pathways ----- Session 5Character description about old woman to include noun phrases and similes.    | READING Class Text                                                                                                      | Value Assembly       |
| THURSDAYMichael Rosen Day | MATHSLesson 14: solve problems involving multiplication and division.                                                                                                                                                                                            | ENGLISH: Michael Rosen Virtual Author Visit               | Book Club        | HISTORYLegacies of the Ancient GreeksAncient Greek language and architecture,                                                                                                                  |                  | REWhy doesn't Christianity always look the same?Lesson 2: How have some significant people influenced Christian practices? | Year 5 - Computing Mrs DaviesSL Year 4                                                                          |                      |
| FRIDAY                            | English: WRITING Pathways Session 6Photos of winter scenes/walk in woodsWrite /create expanded noun phrases and similes about the features in the photos.Learn personification and create personification phrases about the winter forest scenes. |                                                                  | Setting homework | FRENCHMadam Bentley                                                                                                                                                                                       |                  | PEMiss Gingell                                                                                                                        | Art/DTMiss Gingell                                                                                                  | Celebration Assembly |